

For there is no perfect coder, he is dust in the kingdom of our land

Vim Cheatsheet

- TODO: line up dashes
- TODO: coc shortcuts
- TODO: subheadings

“Vim is an artform, there is a more efficient and beautiful way to do many things.”

Basic Movement

h,j,k,l - movement 10j - move 10 lines down
w,e,b - (next) word, end (of word), back (word) 5w - move 5 words 30i “dash” esc - 30 lovely dashes f,F - next/previous occurrence of character % - go to matching parenthesis 0,$ - start and end of line
*,# - next and previous occurrence of word under cursor gg,G - beginning/end of file NG - take you to line number N Ctrl-E/Y - move screen without moving cursor

Searching

/ - searchtext n,N - next previous occurrences

Insert & Delete

o,O - insert new line below/above x,X - deletes character under and to the left of cursor respectively r - replace letter under cursor d - deletes dw - deletes first word to the right (and copies) p - paste
.
- repeat previous command v - visual mode (you select text with movement keys before deciding what to do with it) gt, gT, ngT - change tab; fwd, backward, by number z

My Shortcuts

inoremap jk - Escape to normal mode

Resize splits with arrowkeys

:resize +1 :resize -1 :vertical resize +1 :vertical resize -1

Ctrl Key Shortcuts

:NERDTreeToggle

:TagbarToggle

Leader Key Shortcuts

[n]cc - comments out a line(s) c$ - comments from cursor to end eol cA - add comment at eol [n]cl - switches to alternate delimiters [n]cu - uncomments selected line [n]c - toggle comment

t :call OpenTerminal()

v :PandocPreview